
CPP SPORTS HALL OF FAME

DECEMBER NEWSLETTER

Hard to believe it's December already. This month is always a busy and exciting month for the Hall of Fame.

During the first week of the month, the Board of Directors will hold their monthly meeting and this month it centers around voting on the nominations that have been submitted for consideration of induction into the Hall of Fame. We have received about two dozen resumes to consider and then vote on at our meeting. At this time the board of directors would like to thank all coaches, family members and friends who have submitted resumes for candidates to be considered.

Once the voting is completed on that first Monday of December, those who have been selected for induction will be notified. Following that, the Class of 2023 will be made public with an article in the local newspaper. Those names will also be posted on this website sometime after the middle of the month. Once the Class of 2023 has been announced, the fun begins as we prepare for the annual Induction Ceremony. This year the Board of Directors has elected to stay with the format that was introduced last year.

Instead of having a dinner on Saturday night, we will be once again be turning it into a weekend of events. We will have a Friday night social event at the VFW on Baker Street in Corning and the following afternoon at the Corning Museum of Glass, we will have our annual induction ceremony that will also feature a luncheon provided by the culinary staff at CMOG. Times for these events will be released at a later date and posted on this website.

On Sunday, November 27th, the Board of Directors held their annual fund raiser, a bowling event hosted by Crystal Lanes.

Most of the teams were made up of league bowlers from Crystal Lanes. Despite many efforts to get as many members of the Hall of Fame from other sports to attend and support the event, it was once again mainly supported by local league bowlers. The C-PP Sports Hall of Fame would like to send a huge thank you to the Corning Bowling community. Your strong support over the years is greatly appreciated. Not sure what we would do without that generous support. And another huge thank you to the Crystal Lanes staff.
