CPP SPORTS HALL OF FAME

DECEMBER NEWSLETTER

December is one of the busiest months of the calendar for the Corning-Painted Post Sports Hall of Fame, Board of Directors.

We just finished holding our annual bowling fund-raiser event at Crystal Lanes on the Sunday after Thanksgiving and it was a tremendous success. We were fortunate to have the most teams ever participating with 28 teams. Our previous high was 24 teams. We appreciate all the support we got this year from all who bowled in the event and to those who helped with the success of the event.

At our December meeting, we will be voting on who will be representing the Hall of Fame, Class of 2024. We have a strong number of nominations, and the incoming induction class will be decided by a secret ballot at the December meeting of the Board of Directors.

Those selected for induction will be contacted by an official letter from the Board of Directors and that will be followed by an email about ten days later. Once all of the inductees have been contacted, there will be an article published in the Corning Leader and also a short article will be posted here on the web site.

Once the announcement of the Class of 2024 has been officially published, things really start to roll for the Board of Directors as they gear up for the 48th Annual Induction Ceremonies that will take place on the weekend of March 8-9, 2024.

One of the main items that will be taken care of is the Induction Ceremony program. The directors will be busy getting that program and all the other issues taken care of prior to the ceremony weekend. Anyone wishing to advertise in the program is encouraged to contact any director listed on the web site here. Or you can contact Larry French. He's the Board of Directors secretary and also the program director. He will be able to answer any questions you may have and he can then set you up with any ad you may want to publish.

We hope everyone had a wonderful Thanksgiving and we all wish you the very best in the upcoming holiday season.

Once again, thank you to everyone who supported our bowling fund-raiser.
