

CPP SPORTS HALL OF FAME

MARCH

NEWSLETTER

This is the month the Corning-Painted Post Sports Hall of Fame Board of Directors has been looking forward to since our season started back in September.

Hall of Fame Induction Weekend is just around the corner. On Friday, March 13th, the BOD will be hosting their annual social event at 6 p.m. at the VFW on Baker Street. They will be providing a free pasta dinner which will be catered by the Woodhouse Stadium Grill.

This event will be open to the public. The Induction Class of 2026 will be the guests of honor and we will also be inviting the four winners of the Bacalles Memorial Awards as our special guests. The pasta dinner is free and beverages may be purchased at the bar during the entirety of the event.

This year the Board of Directors is proud to announce the Bacalles Award Winners. These senior student-athletes are Mattisen Johnston, Cella McLaughlin, Clayton Smith and Joseph Fucito. They were selected by their coaches and the winners were determined by a committee of coaches from the high school under the direction of Athletic Director Rebecca Gentile. Congratulations to these very accomplished student-athletes.

The Induction Ceremony at the Corning Museum of Glass auditorium will take place at 1 p.m. on Saturday, March 14 th . Ticket sales for this event are now closed and there will be no tickets sold at the door on the day of the event. Social hour for this event will begin at noon.

The Induction of the Class of 2026 will take place during the program. The Board of Directors are proud to welcome Nathan Grant, John Robinson III, Anita Gennosa, Alex Daines, Pelham McClellan, Carter Bloor, Andy Warner, Jacob Tuller, Madeline Ustanik and Christopher Davis to the Corning-Painted Post Sports Hall of Fame.
